

Equality Policy

Introduction

The duty to promote equality, as defined within the Equality Act (2010) covers race, disability, gender, age, religion or belief and sexual orientation along with pregnancy or maternity and gender reassignment. These are known within the Equality Act and within this policy as “protected characteristics”. It requires all schools, when carrying out their functions, to have due regard to the need to:

- Promote equality of opportunity.
- Eliminate unlawful discrimination.
- Eliminate harassment and victimisation.
- Promote equality by recognising and celebrating differences between people.
- Encourage disabled people’s participation in public life.
- Take steps to take into account people’s disabilities, even where that involves more favourable treatment.

Sackville School’s Equality Policy is a statement of vision and guidance. The separate public sector duty to promote equality, expressed through the Equality Scheme, outlines how we will fulfil this duty by providing a plan of action to tackle and eliminate aspects of discrimination.

School Context

Sackville is a significantly larger than average coeducational secondary school, with an approximate 47/53 female/male split.

The percentage of students that receive the pupil premium is approximately 13% and there is increased trend of eligible students towards the lower end of the school, though this reverses again in year 7: Y7 25, Y8 39, Y9 34, Y10 35, Y11 29, Y12 11, Y13 8.

Ethnic minority groups make up 10.8% of the student population and is rising, with approximately 5% EAL students.

12% of the students in KS3 and KS4 have special educational needs and this figure is markedly higher in the younger years where it exceeds the national average. This is because of the school policy to intervene strongly in KS3 in order that students can access the GCSE curriculum. Some students therefore succeed in being removed from the register in years 9 and 10 due to successful intervention. At post 16, the SEN figure drops to 4%.

Attainment on entry is below the national average in all year groups apart from Year 10 and in Year 9 the prior attainment is significantly below. The gap is greater in the lower than higher years. The percentage of high ability students varies quite considerably between the year groups, always sitting well below national averages. The proportion of low ability students is similar to the national picture whilst the middle ability percentage is higher.

The school has a deprivation indicator of 0.09, well below national. Since the closure of a secondary modern school over the border in Kent, the school has taken approximately 13% of its students from Edenbridge; the two wards of Edenbridge South and Edenbridge North are in the top 6% of deprived wards nationally for education, skills and training and ranked 10th and 11th in the 331 wards in Kent, whilst Edenbridge North is ranked 3rd in Kent for truancy.

Aims & Values

At Sackville School we are committed to ensuring community cohesion through the promotion of equality of opportunity and to ensuring that there is an understanding of diversity for all those within the school community. We recognise that schools exercise a powerful influence that can either reflect and reinforce discrimination and stereotyping or be a potent agent for countering such undesirable behaviour. Our aim is to eliminate unlawful discrimination and promote equal opportunities and good community relations in all areas of school life. This statement affirms the School's commitment to work proactively to promote equal opportunities and cohesion for all groups and in all areas, and offers ways of examining and, where necessary, improving professional practices.

Our mission statement is to create students who are capable, creative, caring and confident. Together we work to the UNICEF Rights Respecting School values.

Our strategic aim is to provide an outstanding education for the students of Sackville School.

Our key priorities are to: Raise levels of attainment and progress of all students at Sackville School through:

1. High quality planning, targeting, tracking and intervention (including impact on attendance)
2. Strong, accountable leadership at all levels of the school
3. High quality teaching, thereby ensuring a strong pace of learning

At Sackville School we will work actively to promote equality and foster positive attitudes and commitment to an education for equality. We will do this by:

- Implementing the actions to meet the Equality Objectives within four years (see Appendix 1)
- Reporting on the progress of the Equality Objectives annually
- Reviewing and revising the Equality Objectives every four years

Equality is promoted through this Policy, the LA and school's Equality and Diversity in Employment Policy, the Equality Objectives (see Appendix 1) and the separate Disability Accessibility Plan (reviewed every three years).

Sackville School seeks to ensure that no students, staff, parents, guardians, carers or any other person through their contact with the school receive less favourable treatment on any grounds which cannot be shown to be justified.
