

Teacher of Food Technology
Full or part time
From: September 2019
MPS

with the possibility of a TLR for the leadership of the subject for a candidate with relevant experience and expertise.

Role Specifics

CORE PURPOSE: To develop and enhance the teaching and learning of Food Technology at Sackville. To raise levels of attainment and progress of all students.

KEY RESPONSIBILITIES:

- To uphold and develop the ethos, values and aims of Sackville School through effective Food Technology teaching.
- To be responsible for driving up student attainment and progress in your classes.
- To support the development of the Design and Technology curriculum including the development of differentiated schemes of work and resources.
- To assess and mark work in accordance with school policies.
- To identify students making less than expected progress in Food Technology after frequent data analysis in liaison with the Curriculum Team Leader of Design and Technology.
- To implement strategies to support these targeted students in your lessons.
- To liaise with the Curriculum Team Leader of Design and Technology, TAs, 1:1 teachers as required.

SKILLS AND QUALITIES: A very strong classroom practitioner. A clear vision for Food Technology teaching. Good communication skills. Strong organisational ability. A commitment to raising standards and an ability to work effectively with colleagues.

Application Requirements

Please submit an application form and a letter of application (one side of A4 in no smaller than font point 10) addressing the following:-

- How your experiences so far have prepared you for this post
- How you will approach the role of teacher of Food Technology at Sackville.

Application deadline: Thursday 14th February 2019 (9.00am)

Visit the school website for an application form, our Safeguarding Policy and more details:

<http://www.sackville.w-sussex.sch.uk/>