October 2013

Dear Parent/Carer

As part of the A Level drama course, AS students need to study a range of live theatre productions in preparation for their DRAM1A exam, and A2 students are required to write about the influence of live theatre in their DRAM4 coursework.

We have organised a theatre visit on Tuesday 7th January 2014 to see the National Theatre's production of 'The Curious Incident of the Dog in the Night-time' at the Apollo Theatre in London's West End. This highly acclaimed production is a creative adaptation of the best-selling novel by Mark Haddon and the winner of seven Olivier awards including 'Best New Play'.

We will meet your child at East Grinstead train station at 4.45pm to get the train to London. The performance is expected to end at approximately 10.15pm. You are invited to make a voluntary contribution of £35 which will cover the cost of the visit including theatre, transport and other incidental costs. I must, however, tell you that as the school could not bear the cost of the visit, the visit will not take place unless all parents, who are able, are willing to contribute.

Please complete and return the form below and the attached parental consent form as soon as possible.

Yours sincerely

Miss A Beckingham
Curriculum Leader of Drama
